This Could Be Your Last Newsletter

Due to increased cost of mailing, the club will no longer be mailing the newsletter after this month, unless requested.

There will be a signup sheet at the next meeting on Feb. 23 to ask how you will like to receive your newsletter. If you cannot make the meeting or a non-member and would still like to receive the newsletter by mail or e-mail please contact the club at rogercee@frognet.net or call Tony Magill at (740) 664-3891.

New Website By Roger Crigger

I am happy to announce that the newly designed website is up and running. It is far from done and still needs a lot of work, mainly on the history and members pages. I think it is the best one I have made so far. This is the third redesign in five years.

New things that have been added included new navigation buttons, the

The newsletter will also be available on the club website on the newsletter page.

Both the online and e-mail newsletter will be in PDF format in printable form and will be available and e-mailed by the second Thursday of the month.

We appreciate your understanding of the matter and hope to see you at the next Meeting.

right side bar that gives our sponsors more exposure (Which I hope brings in new sponsors), and the rotating pictures at the top of each page.

So when you get a chance, stop by and check it out and let me know what you think about it, good or bad.
